"2.1 Action in Cases of Academic Dishonesty

Students are expected to uphold the principles of academic honesty. Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated.

For the first academic dishonesty offense, no action will be taken beyond failure from the course, at the option of the faculty member. A letter of warning will be sent to the student by the Associate Dean explaining the policy regarding further offenses, and the right of appeal.

For a second offense, failure in the course is mandatory, and the Associate Dean will so inform the faculty member(s) involved. Additionally, the Associate Dean has the authority to take further action, up to and including expulsion from the College.

For a third offense, failure from the course and expulsion from the College are mandatory. The Associate Dean has the authority to make a determination of whether actions or reasonable suspicions of actions by a student constitute academic dishonesty "offenses" as above. Information related to academic dishonesty offenses must be passed by the faculty member to the Associate Dean. The Dean will retain the information for at least as long as the student involved is enrolled at the College. Information and evidence concerning academic dishonesty are the property of the College.

All actions against a student for academic dishonesty offenses can be appealed to the Associate Dean, who will serve as final arbiter."
